Clerk, U.S. Bankruptcy Court

In Re: Leticia R. Couttien, Debtor Hal H. Harris & Terrence A/ Colbert, Respondents	: : : : : :	Chapter 7 Case No: 5:14-bk-02262
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------

NOTICE RESPONDENTS WILL PRESENT EVIDENCE ELECTRONICALLY & REQUEST FOR LINK TO FILE EVIDENCE VIA CLOUD EVIDENCE SYSTEM

NOW COMES Hal H. Harris (“Respondent”) who requests This Court provide the required link or access so Respondents can use This Court’s electronic evidence presentation system to submit exhibits Respondent intends to present at Hearing on Leticia Couttien’s (“Debtor”) Motion For Contempt And Request For Injunctive Relief. In support thereof Respondent avers as follows;

1. The Parties, Debtor and both Respondents, in this case are appearing Pro Se.
2. On May 20th, 2022, in advance of the Hearing on Debtor’s Motion For Contempt against Respondents that was scheduled to be held on May 24th, 2022, Respondent Harris filed Notice Respondents Will Present Evidence Electronically (“Notice”) that requested This Court provide Respondent Harris with a link to the Cloud Evidence System (“CES”) so Respondents could file and present Evidentiary Exhibits electronically.
3. After Respondent Harris filed the aforementioned Notice, This Court issued a Sua Sponte Order that 1) changed the previously scheduled May 24th, 2022 Hearing to a Preliminary Hearing and 2) Ordered that no testimony or evidence would be taken at the Preliminary Hearing.
4. Presumably, resultant from This Court’s Sua Sponte Order, This Court did not issue the required link for Respondent Harris to file Respondent’s evidence electronically.
5. On May 24th, 2022, the Honorable Chief Judge Van Henry Van Eck held the Preliminary Hearing on Debtor’s Motion For Contempt and at the conclusion therefore set a trial date for Wednesday, June 22nd, 2022 at 9:30 A.M.
6. On this day, June 16th, 2022, Respondent Harris sent an email to Judge Van Eck’s Courtroom Deputy requesting a link to the Cloud Evidence System (CES) so Harris Respondent can file and present Respondent's Evidentiary Exhibits, some of which exceed the two (2) megabyte limit of the Bankruptcy Court's Electronic Data Submission System (EDSS) limit, electronically.

7. Out of an abundance of caution, Respondent is filing the instant Notice Respondents Will Present Evidence Electronically & Request For Link To File Evidence Via Cloud Evidence System so Respondent Can timely file their evidentiary exhibits.
8. A Proposed Order is attached hereto.
9. Respondent's Certificate of Service is attached hereto.
10. The undersigned Respondent declares under penalty of perjury the foregoing is true and correct to the best of his knowledge.

WHEREFORE Respondent Harris respectfully requests that This Court provide the required link for Respondents to file/upload their Trial Exhibits forthwith.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Hal H. Harris
